

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

The faculty in the College of Engineering and Computer Science at Wright State University are committed to educating students in keeping with high ethical standards of professional engineers and computer scientists and recognize the university academic integrity guidelines outlined below:

1. Be honest at all times.
2. Act fairly toward others. For example, do not disrupt or seek an unfair advantage over others by cheating, by talking, or by looking at other individuals' work during exams.
3. Take group as well as individual responsibility for honorable behavior. Collectively, as well as individually, make every effort to prevent and avoid academic misconduct, and report acts of misconduct that you witness.
4. Do not turn in the same work in more than one class unless permission is received in advance from the professor.
5. Unless permitted by the instructor, do not collaborate with others on graded course work, including in-class and take-home tests, papers, or homework assignments.
6. Know what plagiarism is, and take steps to avoid it. When using the words or ideas of another, even if paraphrased in your own words, cite the source(s).
7. Know that policy, ignorance is no defense. If you have any questions regarding academic misconduct, contact your instructor. Those who violate campus rules are subject to disciplinary action.

College Policy

The College of Engineering and Computer Science recognizes that society must trust the integrity of its graduates, since frequently society may be incapable of understanding and verifying the engineer's work. Therefore, the CECS faculty have approved the following policy concerning academic integrity:

As a Professional Engineer, I dedicate my professional knowledge and skill to the

- To the advancement and betterment of human welfare; To give the utmost of performance;
- To participate in none but honest enterprise;
- To live and work according to the laws of man and the highest standards of professional conduct;
- To place service before profit, the honor and standing of the profession before personal advantage, and the public welfare above all other considerations.

1. The college may impose the most severe penalty possible within the university policy on academic integrity. Please see University Code of Conduct: Section X.
2. The college may dismiss any student found guilty of 2 or more violations of the university policy on academic integrity.
