NOTE:

The College of Engineering and Computer Science BYLAWS were approved February 26, 2003. The new BYLAWS dissolved the committees listed below and the functions of those dissolved committees were reassigned by the Steering Committee on July 21, 2003 as follows:

Academic Mediations-functions assigned to Petitions and Graduate Studies Committees.

Due Process-functions superseded by the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Library-functions assigned to Graduate Studies Committee.

Teaching-functions assigned to Ad-hoc Teaching Awards Committee, whose name is now changed to Ad-hoc Teaching Committee to reflect the expanded role.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

Ad-Hoc Teaching Committee – approved by faculty vote at faculty meeting on April 24, 2009 to amend CECS Bylaws in order to change this Ad-Hoc Committee to a Standing Committee, whose name was also approved to change to Teaching Awards Committee.

Ad-Hoc College Seminar Series Committee – created in October 2005 and dissolved in January 2007. Functions assigned to Department Chairs in association with the PhD Seminars.
